

Vacation checklist

A week before you leave

- Put a hold on your mail at <https://holdmail.usps.com/holdmail>
- Put a hold on the delivery of your newspapers
- Arrange a pet sitter for your furry family members. Don't forget the fish!
- Pay any bills that will be due while you're gone.
- Be sure you have all the clothes that you will need for your cruise. Also make sure they fit!
- If you are a reader, be sure to load up your Kindle with books to read while on vacation or download any Netflix movies you wish to watch. You won't be able to download movies on the ship.
- Let your family know your travel itinerary. This way they will know if something happens or know how to get in touch with you in case of an emergency.
- If you need to arrange for a ride to the airport, go ahead and take care of this.
- Mow your lawn.
- Wash your vehicle.

The day before you leave

- Clean out your refrigerator. Throw away any perishable items that will spoil while you're away.
- Notify your alarm company that you'll be away or set your house cameras to "armed"
- Get all your laundry done including your sheets.
- Check-in for your flight. You can do this on the airline's app or website.
- Print your boarding pass and anything else you need printed or save them as a PDF on your phone.

- Check the weather of your destination. Will you need an umbrella?
- Confirm your hotel reservations. If you booked on a third party like Hotels.com you may want to make sure the hotel has your room available.
- Confirm rental care reservations.
- Make sure you have all phone numbers you'll need such as Airbnb hosts, family contacts, emergency, etc.
- Set your email away message.
- Fully charge all camera batteries, tablet batteries, laptop, phone, etc.
- Make your credit card companies aware you'll be out of the country. Otherwise, you'll be flagged as fraud and won't have any payment. You can do this from most credit card websites.
- Make sure dishwasher is empty.
- Pack everything that you won't need on travel day.

The day you leave

- Make sure all doors and windows are shut and locked.
- Make sure the garbage disposal is clear of food scraps.
- Take out the last bit of garbage to the dumpsters.
- Wash any dishes you used for breakfast and put them away.
- Turn off all lights, fans. Turn on timer for lights.
- Unplug all electronics.
- Water all house plants.
- Set thermostat for away temperature. Typically, 4 degrees from what you normally keep it at.
- Close blinds and curtains.
- Be sure your luggage is TSA compliant. (No loose ammunition in your bags!)
- Double check you have your ID, passport, everything that you need. Some items may include medicine, sunglasses, wallet, phone, phone charger
